BIRMINGHAM, Ala (WBRC-TV MyFoxAL.com) -- Mother and Child Die in Heavy Rain Incident

A mother and her child are dead in Pickens County after a culvert burst and carried their car away. FOX6 News Reporter Kelvin Reynolds tells us 27-year-old Crystal Vaughn and her 18-month-old son were following a relative's car when the culvert burst on Antioch Rd. and washed the car several hundred yards downstream. The incident occurred Tuesday night around nine o'clock during heavy rainstorms. State Troopers are now investigating the incident. Family of the deceased were on the scene as the car was recovered.
